

COOKIE POLICY

Last updated on 10 July, 2018

To make this site work properly, we sometimes place small data files called cookies on your device.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a small text file that a website saves on your computer or mobile device when you visit the site. It enables the website to remember your actions and preferences (such as login, language, font size and other display preferences) over a period of time, so you don't have to keep re-entering them whenever you come back to the site or browse from one page to another.

How do we use cookies?

We use cookies for a variety of reasons, including to: (i) analyze the usage of our Products and Services; (ii) provide a more personalized experience; (iii) allow you to more easily login to use our products services; and (iv) help make your use of Our Products and Services more efficient and more valuable by providing you with a customized experience and recognizing you when you return.

We use the following cookies:

Cookie Name	Purpose
Session_id	Unique id for each session storing user attributes for the application

You can set Your web browser to warn You about attempts to place cookies on Your computer, limit the types of cookies You allow or refuse cookies altogether; however, You may not be able to use some or all of the features of the Services, or Your experience will be different or less functional if You refuse/disable cookies.

How to control cookies

You can control and/or delete cookies as you wish. You can delete all cookies that are already on your computer and you can set most browsers to prevent them from being placed. If you do this, however, you may have to manually adjust some preferences every time you visit a site and some services and functionalities may not work.
